

Research Fellowships in Colonial and U.S. History and Culture

Application deadline: Mar 1, 2012

Lauren Propst <lpropst@librarycompany.org>

One-Month Visiting Research Fellowships

These two independent research libraries will jointly award approximately thirty one-month fellowships for research in residence in either or both collections during 2012-2013. The two institutions, adjacent to each other in Center City Philadelphia, have complementary collections capable of supporting research in a variety of fields and disciplines relating to the history of America and the Atlantic world from the 17th through the 19th centuries, as well as Mid-Atlantic regional history to the present. For information on the collections, visit www.hsp.org and www.librarycompany.org.

One-month fellowships carry a stipend of $2,000 and are tenable for any one-month period between June 2012-May 2013. Two Barra Foundation International Fellowships, each for $2,500 plus a travel allowance, are reserved for foreign national scholars resident outside the U. S. For more detailed information about these fellowships, go to www.librarycompany.org/fellowships. We invite inquiries about the appropriateness of proposed topics to jgreen@librarycompany.org. The Library Company's Cassatt House fellows' residence offers rooms at reasonable rates.

The deadline for receipt of one-month fellowship applications is March 1, 2012, with a decision to be made by April 15. To apply, visit www.librarycompany.org/fellowships, fill out an electronic cover sheet, and submit one portable document format (PDF) containing a résumé and a 2-4 page description of the proposed research. One letter of recommendation should arrive under separate cover in PDF format as well. Please email materials to fellowships@librarycompany.org. If you wish you apply for more than one fellowship, simply check more than one box on your electronic cover sheet.

Albert M. Greenfield Foundation Dissertation Fellowship

This fellowship supports dissertation research in residence at the Library Company on any subject relevant to its collections. The term of the fellowship is from September 2012 to May 2013, with a stipend of $20,000. The award may be divided between two applicants, each of whom would spend a semester in residence. The application deadline and procedures are the same as for the one-month fellowships as described above, with the addition of a second letter of reference and a writing sample of about 25 pages.

Dissertation Fellowships in Early American Literature and Material Texts

The McNeil Center for Early American Studies, in collaboration with the Library Company, offers two dissertation fellowships in early American literature and material texts, supported by a new grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. Fellows will be in residence from July 2012 through July 2013. The stipend for a 13-month term will be at least $28,000. To apply go to www.mceas.org <http://www.mceas.org/> . Deadline, March 1, 2012.

Reference:

STIP: Research Fellowships in Colonial and U.S. History and Culture. In: Arthist.net, Jan 15, 2012
(accessed Oct 29, 2026), <https://arthist.net/archive/2542>.