

Museum of the future - Art and Architecture in discussion (Art Basel, 18.6.03)

INK TREE

ART AND ARCHITECTURE IN DISCUSSION
MUSEUM OF THE FUTURE

Art Basel, Hall 1, Saal "Luzern"
June 18th 2003, 9.30-11.30 a.m.

John Armleder, Didier Fiuza Faustino, Jacques Herzog,
Rem Koolhaas, Beatrix Ruf, Kazuyo Sejima, Philip Ursprung
Moderated by Hans Ulrich Obrist

"The collection still forms a core of the museum, whose role continues to be a storage of time. In other words: to generate a situation receptive to interesting, interlocking spaces, ranging between acceleration and deceleration, between noise and silence." Hans Ulrich Obrist, May 2003

This dialogue is part of an ongoing discussion which is reflected in the book series ART AND ARCHITECTURE IN DISCUSSION, published by Cristina Bechtler and Kunsthaus Bregenz.

Reference:

ANN: Museum of the future - Art and Architecture in discussion (Art Basel, 18.6.03). In: ArtHist.net, Jun 7, 2003 (accessed May 13, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/25718>>.