

Museums and the Web 2004 (Washington DC/Arlington VA, 31.3.-3.4.04)

H-ArtHist (Joachim Homann)

... please forward where appropriate.

Museums and the Web 2004

Washington DC / Arlington VA, USA

March 31 - April 3, 2004

<http://www.archimuse.com/mw2004/>

Call for Participation

You are invited to participate in MW2004. Deliver a paper, host an on-line activity, demonstrate a museum Web Project, present a pre-conference workshop, lead a professional forum or mini-workshop or do "something completely different".

Your participation makes MW a "fantastic learning experience" and "great fun" (as described by attendees at MW2003).

Make your proposal using our on-line form at

<http://www.archimuse.com/mw2004/call.html>

Deadline

Proposals are due September 30, 2003.

Peer Review

All papers presented at MW2004 are subject to Peer Review. Edited papers will be published on the Web, and a selected group will also appear in print proceedings.

Need More Information?

Download the full Call for Participation from

<http://www.archimuse.com/mw2004/pdfs/mw2004.call.pdf>

Full details about MW2004 are online at <http://www.archimuse.com/mw2004/>

Past papers presented at the previous seven Museums and the Web meetings are available on the web, linked from <http://www.archimuse.com/conferences/mw.html>

Join Us!

MW2004 is the largest international gathering of cultural webmasters anywhere. If you are involved in any part of the process of making, delivering, or using culture and heritage on-line, this is the event for you.

Jennifer Trant and David Bearman
Co-Chairs, Museums and the Web 2004
mw2004@archimuse.com

--

Museums and the Web Archives & Museum Informatics
Co-Chairs: 158 Lee Avenue
David Bearman and Jennifer Trant Toronto, Ontario
<http://www.archimuse.com/mw.html>
Canada
phone +1 416 691 2516 / fax +1 416 352-6025 / email: info@archimuse.com

Reference:

CFP: Museums and the Web 2004 (Washington DC/Arlington VA, 31.3.-3.4.04). In: ArtHist.net, Sep 5, 2003 (accessed Jul 5, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/25887>>.