

Degas / Matisse and Dance (P Art and Culture Mag)

P Art and Culture

This is a call for the next Turkish Issue of P Art and Culture Magazine, dedicated to "Dance in Art".

* A 3000-3500 words article is requested about "Degas and Dance".

As images we are going to use his pastel paintings, dessins and "The little Dancer". Degas' intimate connection with dance and movement is the main theme, on which we want to focus. The article is going to be presented along with 10-15 images. If you are interested in this subject, please let us know. Your valuable suggestions and opinions would be appreciated a lot.

* A 3500-4000 words article is requested about "Matisse and Dance".

Matisse's connection with the art of dance was very intense as we know from the archives of Ballet Russes. The Dance is qualified as one of his crucial achievements in his work by many art historians. The article is going to be presented along with 10-15 images. If you are interested in this subject, please let us know. Your valuable suggestions and opinions would be appreciated a lot.

The deadline for the articles and the images is October 15th 2003.

For a detailed information about the journal please visit www.pdergisi.com, and please do not hesitate to get in contact with the editor via editor@pdergisi.com.

Reference:

CFP: Degas / Matisse and Dance (P Art and Culture Mag). In: ArtHist.net, Sep 4, 2003 (accessed Feb 11, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/25901>>.