Henry Moore Institute Research Fellowships (2004-2005)

The Henry Moore Institute invites applications from scholars, curators and artists, who are interested in working on historic and contemporary sculpture using the resources at the Institute. The collections comprise sculptures, a library, a slide library and an archive of works on paper, models and original documents. Fellows will be offered accommodation, travel expenses and a per diem in order to use these resources for one month. The Institute is also able to offer the possibility of presenting finished research projects in published form, as a seminar, or in its galleries.

Please send a letter of application (marked RF), a proposal (1000 words max.) and a CV by 9 January 2004 to:

Henry Moore Institute,
74 The Headrow,
Leeds LS1 3AH.
