

Art Historian - Medieval, Renaissance, Baroque specialist (Rollins College Art Dept, FL)

Susan Libby

Art History, tenure-track. Medieval, Renaissance, and/or Baroque specialist, with required sub-specialization in non-Western area, Asian strongly preferred. The Rollins College Art Department, which comprises Art History and Studio Art, seeks an enthusiastic faculty member with the following qualifications: Ph.D. and teaching experience; commitment to continued scholarly development; interest in new technologies in teaching art history. The successful candidate will teach the second half of the survey of Western art and courses in her/his areas of expertise, sustain a coherent and active program of scholarship, advise students, demonstrate a commitment to undergraduate liberal arts education, and contribute to the ongoing operations and activities of the department and the college.

Please submit letter of application, CV, 3 letters of recommendation, and a brief writing sample (no more than 35 pages) to: Chair, Art History Search, Art Department, Rollins College, 1000 Holt Ave. - 2676, Winter Park, FL 32789. Application deadline: January 5, 2004.

Through its mission, Rollins is firmly committed to creating a just community that embraces multiculturalism and equality; persons of color and women are therefore encouraged to apply.

Reference:

JOB: Art Historian - Medieval, Renaissance, Baroque specialist (Rollins College Art Dept, FL). In: ArtHist.net, Nov 10, 2003 (accessed Feb 5, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/26031>>.