

Galerie Sloden, Paris

Poul Pedersen

Dear List members,

I should be most grateful if any of the List members could help me with information about 'Galerie Sloden' situated in Paris in Faubourg St-Honoré. It was active in the 1920s and '30s, running exhibitions with painters like Joseph Stella, Jean Egger and Varlin.

The gallery was probably owned by the American emigré Lewis Sloden. What printed or archival sources are available in this context?

Yours sincerely,

Poul Pedersen
