ABOUT H-ECAI

H-ECAI is a forum for exchanging news, announcements, and questions about ECAI and its technologies. We also welcome from anyone with an interest in cultural heritage computing, historical GIS, and the power of time and place for sharing and integrating information about culture and history.

Like all H-Net lists, H-ECAI is moderated to edit out material that, in the editors' opinion, is not germane to the list, involves technical matters (such as subscription management requests), is inflammatory, or violates evolving, yet common, standards of Internet etiquette. H-Net's procedure for resolving disputes over list editorial practices is Article II, Section 2.20 of our bylaws, located at:

<http://www.h-net.org/about/by-laws.html>

Logs and more information can also be found at the H-Net Web Site, located at:

<http://www.h-net.org/~ecai/>

To join H-ECAI, please send a message from the account where you wish to receive mail, to:

listserv@h-net.msu.edu

(with no signatures or styled text, word wrap off for long lines) and only this text:

sub h-ECAI firstname lastname, institution

Example: sub h-ECAI Leslie Jones, Pacific State U

Alternatively, you may go to <http://www.h-net.org/lists/subscribe.cgi> to perform the same function as noted above.

Follow the instructions you receive by return mail. If you have questions or experience difficulties in attempting to subscribe, please send a message to:

help@mail.h-net.msu.edu

H-Net is an international network of scholars in the humanities and social sciences that creates and coordinates electronic networks, using a variety of media, and with a common objective of advancing humanities and social science teaching and research. H-Net was created to provide a positive, supportive, equalitarian environment for the friendly exchange of ideas and scholarly resources, and is hosted by Michigan State University. For more information about H-Net, write to H-Net@H-net.msu.edu, or point your web browser to:
