

Paolozzi Junior Curatorship (Edinburgh)

Stacy Boldrick

NATIONAL GALLERIES OF SCOTLAND JUNIOR CURATOR - PAOLOZZI ARCHIVE (BAND 6)
(Fixed term three year appointment)

This is an exciting career opening for a post-graduate with experience of 20th-century art history. The main purpose of this post is to catalogue onto computer the major archive of the work of Sir Eduardo Paolozzi at the Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art in Edinburgh. Other opportunities include curating four displays using the Paolozzi Collection.

It is envisaged the post-holder will be able to contribute to a new understanding of post-war British art. The care of a collection will be central to this work, as well as publishing articles.

Funded by the Leverhulme Trust, this post has been set up under the joint auspices of the National Galleries of Scotland and the Visual Arts Research Institute, Edinburgh (VARIE) which will provide an inter-institutional framework with links to academic resources and leading scholars, adding a greater depth to the curatorial research and its dissemination.

Salary: £16,000 per annum (under review)

For further information and an application form for the above post, please telephone: +44 (0) 131 624 6282 (answerphone) or e-mail apply@nationalgalleries.org stating your name, address and the job title.
