art, science & business

Call for papers / applications for 2005

The program art, science & business has been officially prolonged until the end of 2005.

Complementary to its fellowship program for artists, the Akademie Schloss Solitude promotes young scientists from all fields of sciences, law and the humanities, as well as managers and business people. The program aims to develop the interdisciplinary exchange between arts, sciences and business. Promoting research includes supporting individual projects with a residency fellowship at Akademie Schloss Solitude. The duration of the fellowship is based on the individual project needs (in general 3-12 months).

Applications may be submitted until November 15th including CV, list of publications, project outline, 1-2 references.
