x-post: H-Museum

Professor of the History of Modern Art (with tenure)

Closing Date for Applications: 1/15/2005

The Department of History of Art and Architecture at Brown University invites nominations and applications for the Andrea V. Rosenthal Chair in the History of Art and Architecture. Candidates should have a distinguished international reputation for research and publication in some area(s) of European or continental North American art/visual culture, c.1815-1930.

The Andre V. Rosenthal Professor will exercise leadership in research, teach undergraduate and graduate courses and supervise theses and dissertations. Courses offered by this faculty member are expected to complement course offerings in our department in contemporary art and visual culture and the history of modern and contemporary architecture. She or he will be expected to provide service to the department and the profession, and to promote interaction among scholars in related fields.
