Faculty position in non-Western Art, open rank

University of California, Davis, Program in Art History;
commencing July 1, 2005

The Program in Art History at the University of California, Davis, invites applications for a new faculty position in any aspect of art history / visual culture outside Europe and the Western tradition. Possible subject areas include: African Art / Asian Art (excluding China) / Art of the Indigenous Peoples of the Americas / Islamic Art / Pacific Islander Art / multi-regional topics. Preference will be given to a scholar working with pre-1900 material. Rank is open, appointment as Associate or Full Professor with tenure possible for qualified candidate. We seek a dynamic researcher whose scholarship will thrive as part of the arts, humanities, cultural studies and social sciences at the University of California, Davis. Standard teaching load is four undergraduate and graduate level courses per year on the quarter system. Ph.D. and teaching experience required; publications record preferred. Appointment commences July 1, 2005.

Submit letter of application, CV, descriptions of proposed courses, a writing sample, and the names of three referees (including their addresses, e-mail and telephone contact details) to: Simon Sadler, Chair, Art History Search Committee, Art History Program, University of California, 1 Shields Avenue, Davis, CA 95616. Review of applications begins 10 January 2005 and continues until the position is filled. International applicants are encouraged to apply. Questions about this announcement may be addressed to Simon Sadler at sjsadler@ucdavis.edu.

The University of California, Davis, is an affirmative action / equal opportunity employer with a strong institutional commitment to the achievement of diversity among its faculty and staff.
