

Terra Summer Residency: American art (Giberny F)

Bobrowska-Jakubowski Ewa

Terra Foundation for the Arts /
Musée d'Art Américain Giverny, France:

Residency 2005

The Terra Summer Residency in Giverny provides European and American scholars and artists with an opportunity for independent study of American art within a framework of interdisciplinary exchange and dialogue.

The Foundation offers ten summer fellowships (each $4,500) to doctoral students engaged in art historical research and to artists who have completed their studies at Masters level. Throughout the eight-week program (June 13 – August 7, 2005), senior artists and art historians are also in residence to mentor fellows and pursue their own work. Application deadline: January 24, 2005.

For application information, please consult the Musée d'Art Américain Giverny website at

<http://www.maag.org>

or contact :

tsr@maag.org.

--

Ewa Bobrowska

Academic Coordinator of the Terra Summer Residency

Tel: 33 (0)2 32 51 94 60

--

Reference:

STIP: Terra Summer Residency: American art (Giberny F). In: ArtHist.net, Nov 15, 2004 (accessed Jun 4, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/26792>>.