Part-time Visiting Lecturer, History of Art
Department of Education and Lifelong Learning

The Department of Education and Lifelong Learning has a vacancy for a part-time lecturer to teach the course Dutch art of the seventeenth century, which will take place on Wednesday evenings, 6.3–8.30 p.m. for 10 weeks from 12 January, comprising 9 classroom sessions and 3 teaching sessions in London galleries. This is an introductory course, an overview of the art of the Dutch Golden Age. For more details of the course, see the Courses for Adults website at www.city.ac.uk/conted/cfa/arts (Click on 'Art and Design' and on the course title).

Please send CV and short covering message to j.spours-1@city.ac.uk

Those interested in teaching part time on other aspects of art history may also apply as the Department is compiling a database of potential tutors for future employment.

Application deadline: Tuesday 21 December 2004.
