Conservator
Sainsbury Centre for Visual Arts
University of East Anglia

<http://jobs.ac.uk/jobfiles/LL958.html>

The Sainsbury Centre for Visual Arts is a university museum housed in a Norman Foster building on the UEA campus. Its principal holdings are the Robert and Lisa Sainsbury Collection of world art, the University of East Anglia Collection of Abstract and Constructivist Art, Architecture and Design and the Anderson Collection of Art Nouveau. In addition, the Centre mounts up to six temporary exhibitions each year.

We are seeking an established Conservator with excellent communication skills to join the Sainsbury Centre team. You will have considerable experience in the fields of preventive conservation and environmental monitoring and control, and will also be able to offer expertise in one or more of the following areas of specialisation: organic materials; works on paper; ceramics and sculpture.

You will also be expected to undertake a certain amount of teaching at both undergraduate (museum studies) and postgraduate (museology) levels and, from time to time, to supervise internships.

Appointment will be subject to a Standard Criminal Records Check by the Criminal Records Bureau.

This full-time indefinite post is available immediately and salary will be the range £22,507 to £29,128 per annum.

Further particulars and an application form can be obtained from the Personnel Office, University of East Anglia, Norwich NR4 7TJ (Internet: <http://www.uea.ac.uk/personnel/jobs/> or e-mail: personnel@uea.ac.uk or answerphone: 01603 593493), to be returned no later than 4th April 2005. Please quote reference number OR202.
