

Student Fund for Voluntary Work (AAH)

Chrissie Bradstreet

Student Fund for Voluntary Work
Association of Art Historians

The Student Fund for Voluntary Work offers financial assistance to AAH Student Members who arrange a voluntary work placement in a UK museum, gallery, heritage site or other visual art environment. The scheme encourages participation in a diversity of projects across the country.

Funds are available to subsidise daily travel, meals and accommodation, childcare, training and materials. The maximum amount available to any one student is £500.00.

To apply for the 2005 Student Fund please visit the AAH website for guidelines and an application form at:
