M4HUMAN Programme - Mobility for experienced researchers in historical humanities and Islamic studies

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Marie Curie Fellowships of the Gerda Henkel Foundation

Co-financed by the European Commission under the EU's Seventh Framework Programme for Research

Starting in 2011, the Gerda Henkel Foundation is offering Marie Curie Fellowships in the M4HUMAN programme aimed at supporting outstanding scholars.

Funding:

- History
- Prehistory and Early History
- Archaeology
- Art History
- Historic Islamic Studies
- Legal History
- History of Science
- Historical studies, religious, cultural and political sciences under the special programme „Islam, the Modern Nation State and Transnational Movements“.

Eligibility:

The programme provides 24-month research grants for two categories of researchers:

- Experienced researchers (holding a doctorate or with 4 to 10 years of comparable and proven research experience)
- Senior researchers (holding post-doctoral qualifications, a comparable academic ranking, or with more than 10 years of comparable and proven research experience)

Precondition:

A precondition for the application is an element of mobility (either incoming or outgoing); i.e. a stay at a host research institute selected by the applicant, situated in a country other than the country of origin and lasting for at least 70% of the 24-month period covered by the grant.

The Deadline for applications is June 15, 2012.
