

Science and Art (Heidelberg 15 Jul 05)

Ingeborg Reichle

(Heidelberg, 15. Juli)

Symposium: Science and Art – an Evolving Relationship

EMBL Heidelberg, European Molecular Biology Laboratory

15 July 2005

EMBL Heidelberg [Operon and Operon Foyer]

Scientists and artists, through their thoughts, projects, and products, change the world. The aim of this art and science event at EMBL is to explore various aspects of creativity at the interface between science and art.

13:00-13:10

Welcome

13:10-13:55

Suzanne Anker, School of Visual Arts, New York

Beauty and the beast: Transforming paradigms in art and science

13:55-14:40

Arthur I. Miller, Univ. College, London

Abstract art/abstract science

14:40-15:25

Christa Sommerer, Univ. of Art and Design, Linz

The art and science of interface culture

15:25-16:00

Coffe break

16:00-17:00

Panel discussion

Chair: Professor Peter Weibel, Zentrum fuer Kunst und Medientechnologie [ZKM], Karlsruhe

Panelists: Nadia Rosenthal, EMBL; Giovanni Frazzetto, EMBL; Caroline Lemerle, EMBL and the invited speakers

EMBL Heidelberg

Meyerhofstrasse 1, 69117 Heidelberg, Germany

Tel: +49 [0] 6221 387-0

Fax: +49 [0] 6221 387-8306

E-mail: info@embl.de

<http://www.embl-heidelberg.de/aboutus/sciencesociety/meetings.html>

Reference:

CONF: Science and Art (Heidelberg 15 Jul 05). In: ArtHist.net, Jun 1, 2005 (accessed Mar 28, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/27306>>.