Dear CAAH colleagues,

The American Society for Eighteenth Century Studies, an affiliate society of CAA, hosts its own interdisciplinary conference each spring. This year it will be in Montreal, March 30 - April 2, 2006.

The CAAH listserv members might be interested to know that there are several dozen sessions that specifically ask for participation from art historians working in the "long 18th century," i.e., late 17th - early 19th centuries. Paper proposals are due September 15th. There are too many relevant sessions to mention here, but the website with the complete Call for Papers, as well as descriptions of each session, is:

<http://asecs.press.jhu.edu/2006%20Call%20for%20Papers.htm>

I list below the sessions specifically offered by members of the Historians of 18th-century Art & Architecture (HECAA), itself an affiliate society of both CAA and ASECS. Please contact the session chairs directly for more information or to submit a paper proposal.

Sincerely, Anne Schroder President, Historians of 18th-century Art & Architecture (HECAA)

Anne Schroder, Ph.D. Associate Curator Nasher Museum of Art at Duke University

Call for Papers ASECS Annual Meeting

Montreal, Quebec

March 30 - April 2, 2006

Deadline: 15 September 2005

Proposals for papers should be sent directly to the seminar chairs no later than 15 September 2005. Please include your telephone and fax numbers and e-mail address. You should also let the session chair know of any anticipated audio-visual needs. Seminar chairs will have until 30 September to send the names of participants, their e-mail addresses, titles of their papers, and audio visual requirements to the ASECS Business Office (asecs@wfu.edu) (Fax: 336-727-4697) Please be reminded that the Society's rules permit members to present only one paper at the meeting. Members may, in addition to presenting a paper, serve as a session chair, a respondent, or a panel discussant, but they may not present a paper in those sessions they also chair. If you submit a paper proposal to more than one session, please be sure that you so notify all the chairs to which you have made a submission. If you fail to notify the session chairs, they will have the right to decide between themselves in which session the paper(s) will be presented or if the papers will be excluded entirely. Participants are expected to be ASECS members by 1 December 2005.
