institution

kunstlerhaus buchsenhausen is an international centre for production, research and discussion in the fields of visual and media arts. The kunstlerhaus provides a forum that facilitates direct exchange between artists, theorists, art critics and curators from the region and abroad. the institution also promotes young, innovative talents and presents their work. kunstlerhaus buchsenhausen is an institution affiliated with the "tyrolean artists' association".

location

the building -the eastern wing of the buchsenhausen castle, built in the middle of the 17th century and situated in the city of innsbruck, not far from its centre - houses eleven studios and a project space. three apartment studios are used by fellows of the international residence programme for visual and media arts <buchsenhausen.air>. eight studios are available to artists based in tyrol. The künstlerhaus also has a large project and presentation space equipped with multimedia facilities. the space was designed by atelier van lieshout in the spring of 2003.

residence programme

with its residence programme künstlerhaus büchsenhausen actively promotes an internationally relevant art production, research and discussion in the region of tyrol. in the framework of the programme every year 6 visual / media artists and 3 theorists / art critics receive a fellowship and reside in innsbruck for a period of 3 months. the fellows selected by an international jury find excellent working conditions at the künstlerhaus, while the city of innsbruck and its surrounding area offers an interesting setting in terms of art, culture and landscape. the residency at the künstlerhaus buchsenhausen allows fellows to work on the proposed project but also gives them the possibility to experiment and to reconsider their current practice.

furthermore, they have the opportunity to become directly familiar with the work of other residents, to exchange plans and ideas and to also carry out joint projects. usually, there are three fellows and eight tyrol-based artists working at the künstlerhaus at the same time.
