

Assist. Prof. of Art History (Univ. of Wisconsin)

H-ANNOUNCE

University of Wisconsin - River Falls - Assistant Professor of Art History

The Department: The Art Department offers accredited bachelor degree programs (B.F.A., B.A. and B.S.) in painting, drawing, fibers, advertising design, ceramics, glass, printmaking, metals/jewelry, art education and photography. The department also co-sponsors an interdisciplinary Master's degree for teachers of the arts. The nine art faculty members have either national or international reputations and teach a high quality program in newly renovated studio facilities appropriate to each area of fine arts offered. Gallery 101 hosts numerous exhibitions and events and provides a venue for students to gain experience in exhibition, art promotion and display.

The Position: The Department of Art is seeking an Assistant Professor of Art History. Duties will include teaching undergraduate courses in art appreciation, surveys of western art history, contemporary art history and other specialized topics in the candidate's area of expertise. Other responsibilities include: overseeing a resource library of media materials for teaching art history, advising students majoring in art; and actively participating and serving on various department and university committees. The position is a full-time tenure-track faculty position that begins in August 2006. Compensation is based on qualifications, including education and experience. The University expects scholarly activity, which may include research, publications, presentations and creative endeavors that support the program.

Qualifications: Applicants must have obtained a doctorate degree at time of appointment, evidence of or potential for successful university-level teaching, a record of successful scholarly activity and contributions to the field, and strong verbal and written communication skills.

To Apply: Submit a resume (or curriculum vitae), a statement of your teaching philosophy, and a letter of interest specifying: 1) qualifications, and 2) experience including ability to contribute to the enhancement of student awareness and appreciation of diverse cultures. Include unofficial transcripts (official copies will be required if hired), three letters of reference, with names, addresses and telephone numbers of individuals who can specifically comment on your teaching ability, experience, and professional preparation, and an example of scholarly work.

Inquiries and hard copy applications should be addressed to:

Dr. Lynn Jermal
Chair, Search and Screen Committee
Art Department
University of Wisconsin – River Falls
410 South 3rd Street
River Falls, WI 54022
E Mail: lynn.m.jermal@uwrf.edu
Phone: (715) 425-3266

Electronic applications should be addressed to: susan.m.zimmer@uwrf.edu
The names of all nominees and applicants who have not requested confidentiality in writing, and identities of all finalists, must be released upon request.

Deadline to apply: Review of applications will begin on December 1, 2005 and continue until the position is filled. More information on the university and department can be found at <http://www.uwrf.edu/art> and <http://www.uwrf.edu/hr>

The University is committed to creating an educational community which enhances student awareness and appreciation of diverse ethnicities and cultures and which actively supports tolerance, civility and respect for the rights and sensibilities of each person without regard to economic status, ethnic background, political views, sexual orientation, or other personal characteristics or beliefs. Awareness of and sensitivity to diverse ethnic and cultural heritages are especially sought in applicants

The University of Wisconsin – River Falls, a member of the University of Wisconsin System, is located 30 miles from the Twin Cities Minneapolis-St. Paul in scenic west central Wisconsin. Year around arts, cultural and recreational events are easily accessible. UW-RF's 5,800 undergraduate and graduate students pursue degrees in four colleges: Arts and Sciences; Education and Professional Studies; Agriculture, Food, and Environmental Science; and Business and Economics. The University provides an excellent environment for learning, emphasizing the importance of faculty-student interaction in classrooms, studios, laboratories, academic advising and co-curricular activities. A favorable student-faculty ratio affords opportunity for meaningful interchange between faculty and students. Strong interests in teaching, exhibition, research and community service are highly valued.

UW-River Falls is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer subject to all state and federal regulations pertaining to non-discrimination based upon sex, sexual orientation, race, color, national origin, religion, disability, marital status, age, arrest and/or conviction record, veteran status and membership in the national guard, state defense force, or any other reserve component of the military forces of the United States or the State of Wisconsin. All persons, especially women, persons of color, and the disabled are encouraged to apply. Employment is subject to federal laws that require verification of your identity and legal right to work in the United States as required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act.

For a copy of UW-River Falls campus safety information see <http://www.uwrf.edu/public-safety/crimereport.html> or call Public Safety at (715) 425-3133 for a paper copy. This material includes crime statistics (Annual Security Report) and information on

Contact Info:
Dr. Lynn Jermal
Chair, Search and Screen Committee
Art Department
University of Wisconsin – River Falls
410 South 3rd Street

ArtHist.net

River Falls, WI 54022

E Mail: lynn.m.jermal@uwrf.edu

Phone: (715) 425-3266

Website: <http://www.uwrf.edu>

Reference:

JOB: Assist. Prof. of Art History (Univ. of Wisconsin). In: ArtHist.net, Oct 20, 2005 (accessed Oct 20, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/27598>>.