Maria Liberman

VIII CONGRESS of the European Association for Jewish Studies

Moscow, 23-27 July 2006

FIRST CALL FOR PAPERS

The executive committee of the European Association for Jewish Studies is glad to announce that the next congress of EAJJS will take place in Moscow on July, 23-27, 2006. It will be the first EAJJS Congress held in Eastern Europe. We hope to bring together scholars from both Eastern and Western Europe. The theme of the Congress is 'Past and present perspectives in Jewish Studies'. The local organizers are the International Center for Russian & East European Jewish Studies, and "Sefer" Center for University Teaching of Jewish Civilization.

Members of the European Association for Jewish Studies and all other scholars in the various fields of Jewish Studies are invited to participate in the VIIIth EAJJS Congress. Scholars are welcome to attend the Congress whether or not they intend to present a paper.

Proposals for Lectures (20 minutes + 10 minutes for discussion) should contain a title and a 300-word abstract.

Please send applications to: EAJS2006@jewishstudies.ru till December 1, 2005

Please select from the list of Sections the subject area in which you choose to have your proposal considered. You may submit your proposal to only one Section. However, please be aware that the Congress Committee and Section Chairs will work together in placing proposals in other appropriate Sections if a worthy proposal cannot be placed in the Section to which it was submitted. Also attach your CV, return mailing address, e-mail address, fax, and telephone number. All abstracts will be forwarded to the appropriate Section chairman, who will make the final selection of lectures to be presented. DO NOT SEND abstracts to Section Chairs.
