

Image and Narrative 13 (2005)

Patricia Allmer

Belgian Surrealism Since 1924

IMAGE [&] NARRATIVE

<http://www.imageandnarrative.be/>

Issue 13.

The Forgotten Surrealists: Belgian Surrealism Since 1924

(Guest edited by Patricia Allmer and Hilde Van Gelder)

Patricia Allmer and Hilde Van Gelder

Introduction

Ainsley Brown

René Magritte and Paul Éluard: An International and Interartistic Dialogue

Stacy Fuessle

The Belgian Surrealists and Sade: A Criminal Affinity

Sebastian Hackenschmidt

A Material Matter: Marcel Broodthaers' Use of Bones as a Surrealist

Intervention against the Political Cult of the Dead

Silvano Levy

Magritte at the Edge of Codes

Neil Matheson

E.L.T. Mesens - Dada Joker in the Surrealist Pack

An Paenhuysen

Surrealism in the Provinces: Flemish and Walloon Identity in the Interwar Period

David Scott

Words in the Paintings of Paul Delvaux

Ben Stoltzfus

La Belle captive: Magritte's Surrealism, Robbe-Grillet's Metafiction

Janet Tyson

The Persistence of Mystery: René Magritte as a Regional Artist

With reviews by Liesbeth Decan and Jan Baetens

Reference:

TOC: Image and Narrative 13 (2005). In: ArtHist.net, Nov 30, 2005 (accessed Jul 10, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/27663>>.