

Death, Mourning, Memory (Woodcliff Lake, 27-29 Oct 06)

Lilian Zirpolo

Conference

Constructions of Death, Mourning, and Memory

patronized by the WAPACC Organization to take place at the Woodcliff Lake Hilton, Woodcliff Lake, New Jersey

October 27-29, 2006

Call for Papers

Deadline: December 15, 2005

Papers are sought on any aspect of death and dying as represented in art.

Topics may include the commemoration of the dead, death as a result of war, the plague, old age and preparation for death, martyrdoms, suicide, human sacrifice, triumph over death, apotheoses, or the pursuit of immortality.

For a list of sessions and instructions on how to submit paper proposals, please visit our website at <http://www.aurorajournal.org>

<http://www.aurorajournal.org/>

(best if viewed with Internet Explorer) .

Abstracts for papers that do not fit into any of the topics addressed in the sessions listed should be sent to both conference co-chairs who will organize other sessions based on accepted submissions:

Lilian H. Zirpolo

c/o aurora

255 Glen Road

Woodcliff Lake, NJ 07677

lzirpolo@optonline.net

Joanna Gardner-Huggett

Art and Art History Department

DePaul University

1150 W. Fullerton Ave.

Chicago, IL 60614-2204

jgardner@depaul.edu

Conference abstracts and proceedings will be published.

The Woodcliff Lake Hilton is located approximately 15-20 miles from New York City. It is nestled in picturesque wooded grounds, yet close to restaurants, shopping, public transportation, art galleries, and museums.

Reference:

CFP: Death, Mourning, Memory (Woodcliff Lake, 27-29 Oct 06). In: ArtHist.net, Nov 22, 2005 (accessed Dec 22, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/27668>>.