PAIN AND DEATH

Politics, Aesthetics and Legalities

a conference and associated exhibits and performances

Thursday 8 - Saturday 10 December 2005

The Centre for Cross-Cultural Research

Old Canberra House

Australian National University

T: 61+2+61252434 or 6125 0044

The war on terror and its representations have ignited interest in pain and death across a wide range of disciplines as well as in the visual arts, music, poetry, dance and theatre. This conference brings together scholars, artists and activists to explore the politics, legalities and representation of state sanctioned violence.

Audience disciplines and media: criminology, political science, law, history, literature, sociology, anthropology, cultural studies, psychology, linguistics, journalism and philosophy. Visual arts, music, poetry, dance, and theatre.

Associated with the conference is a public lecture by the Nigerian-born human rights activist Dr. Owens Wiwa, brother of writer and activist Ken Saro-Wiwa, on the tenth anniversary of Saro-Wiwa's execution.
