From Icon to Art in the Netherlands

Baltimore/Washington,
November 8-12, 2006

Deadline: March 15, 2006

The Historians of Netherlandish Art will hold its conference in Baltimore and Washington from November 8-12, 2006. The conference, "From Icon to Art in the Netherlands," coincides with two important area exhibitions of Netherlandish art, Prayers and Portraits: Unfolding the Netherlandish Diptych, at the National Gallery of Art, and, at the Walters Art Museum, a new installation of the Old Master galleries, based on a provocative, contextual approach featuring the Collections of Art and Wonders belonging to a 17th century Nobleman in Flanders and the Cabinet Galleries of a Dutchman in the circle of William and Mary around 1700.

Sessions and workshops are in Baltimore; Washington will feature a preview of the Diptychs exhibition.

A call for papers is open until March 15, 2006.

For information, including a preliminary program, please see "HNA conferences" at www.hnanews.org.
