VANSA

TRANSFORMATION | OPPORTUNITY | GROWTH
CONFERENCE ON THE VISUAL ARTS IN SOUTH AFRICA 2006
VANSA

National and International Speakers
Cape Town 8 -11 February 2006

The Visual Arts Network of SA (VANSA) will be hosting the TRANSFORMATION | OPPORTUNITY | GROWTH national visual arts conference from 8 to 11 February 2006 at the UCT Hiddingh Campus, Orange Street, Cape Town.

The conference is supported by the Department of Arts and Culture, The CAPE Africa Platform through NAC and ACT grants, Business Arts SA (BASA), the British Council, Pro Helvetia, Cape Town Partnership and Artists Network. The conference runs over three days and is followed on a fourth day (11 February) by VANSA's first national AGM.

The conference hopes to invite key visual arts practitioners: artists, gallerists, academics, educationalists, curators, critics, collectors, administrators and bureaucrats, amongst others, to discuss the state of visual arts since 1994. Speakers and guests will come from all the nine provinces of the country and will include some international delegates. A special artists' workshop will run alongside the formal 'talkshop'. Throughout the conference there will be a host of optional social events', tours and presentations/displays including a special Art Night (10 Feb 2006 from 18h30).

VANSA is an organisation established by and for South African artists and arts practitioners to represent and lobby for the interests of all active practitioners in the South African visual arts sector. Focused largely on issues of art and social development, VANSA foregrounds existing historical imbalances and deals with concerns around access, opportunities and coherence within the visual arts sector. Formed in 2003, it is an emerging national voluntary body that is establishing a broad membership base, which includes leading figures from the visual arts community nationally.

The 3 days of the conference cost R300 in total, or R150 for VANSA members. Bursaries are available for paid up VANSA members who cannot afford the conference fee. VANSA membership costs R50 for individuals and R200 for institutions. Contact Gouwa at Merle Falken inc at reception@merlefalkeninc.co.za for bookings, phone 021-447 9108.
