Winterthur Residential Research Fellowship Program

Winterthur Museum and Country Estate is pleased to announce its Research Fellowship Program for 2007-2008. Winterthur offers an extensive program of short and long-term fellowships open to academic, independent, and museum scholars, including advanced graduate students, to support research in material culture, architecture, decorative arts, design, consumer culture, garden & landscape studies, Shaker studies, travel and tourism, the Atlantic

World, childhood, sentimental literary culture, and many other areas of social and cultural history.

Fellowships include 4-12 month NEH Fellowships, 1-2 semester McNeil Dissertation Fellowships, and 1-2 month short-term fellowships. Fellows have full access to library collections of more than 87,000 volumes and one-half million manuscripts and images. Resources for the seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries include period trade catalogs, auction and exhibition catalogs, an extensive reference photograph collection of decorative arts, printed books, and ephemera, searchable online at www.winterthur.org/research/library_resources.asp Fellows may also conduct object based research in the museum collections, which include 85,000 artifacts and works of art made or used in America to 1860, with a strong emphasis on domestic life. Fellowship applications are due January 15, 2007. For more details and to apply visit www.winterthur.org/research/fellowship.asp or email program director Katherine C. Grier <kgrier@winterthur.org>.
