

H-NET FALL DONATIONS APPEAL

Peter

Dear H-Net readers: Please join me in supporting H-Net so that we can keep H-Net freely accessible to students, scholars, and the interested public. Each fall we ask you to give what you can toward both reducing H-Net's considerable operating costs and improving H-Net's services.

Any gift is gratefully received, but just $25 from each of you will fund H-Net's entire operations for two years! This includes significant improvements to our website, greater capacity to manage and publish the professional book and media reviews that you have come to rely upon, and resources to support the hundreds of volunteer editors who make our networks informative and productive spaces for collaboration.

Donations are tax-deductible for U.S. taxpayers and can be made one of three convenient ways:

1. The preferred and most secure method is online via a Verisign secure site: <http://www.h-net.org/donations> which accepts major credit cards.

2. If you don't have internet access or you have technical difficulties donating online, you can give by mail; please provide a return address so we can send you a receipt and properly credit your gift; checks in USD or Euros should be payable to:

or

3. by phone +517 432 5134, during regular business hours (08.00-12.00, 13.00-17.00 Eastern U.S. time zone, M-F) at Michigan State University. Our staff processes donations through the site above, so please call only if you are unable to use the website to make your gift, or if you have a specific question for us.

General questions about the appeal can be directed to donation@mail.h-net.msu.edu. Please do not send credit card or other sensitive financial information to us via email; use the secure web site above.

I thank you for your time and your generous support for H-Net!

Sincerely,
