

workshop for doctoral candidates (Getty Research Institute)

Katja Zelljadt

Getty Dissertation Workshop

March 15-16, 2007

Getty Research Institute, The Getty Center

Deadline: January 10, 2007

This two-day intensive workshop at the Getty Research Institute is designed for doctoral candidates in art history who are in the midst of writing their dissertations. The distinctive format - in which each participant presents the project of another - provides a small group of advanced graduate students the opportunity for intensive discussion with each other and with two senior professors in the field. The goal of the workshop is to stimulate new perspectives, offer constructive critique, and situate the participants' projects in a broader art historical context.

The Getty Research Institute provides accommodations and a reimbursement of up to $500 for travel expenses.

To apply: Please send your dissertation proposal, an update on the status of your project, a current curriculum vitae, and a letter of recommendation from your thesis advisor. You must have advanced to candidacy, written at least one chapter of your dissertation, and expect to finish after 2007.

Application materials should be sent to Sabine Schlosser, Research and Education Department, Getty Research Institute, 1200 Getty Center Drive, Suite 1100, Los Angeles, CA 90049.

Application materials must be received by January 10, 2007.

For additional information, please contact Katja Zelljadt at (310) 440-7692 or kzelljadt@getty.edu.

Reference:

CFP: workshop for doctoral candidates (Getty Research Institute). In: ArtHist.net, Nov 3, 2006 (accessed May 30, 2026), <<https://arthist.net/archive/28688>>.