

Medieval Arts of North Africa + Near East (Princeton)

Colum P. Hourihane

THE INDEX OF CHRISTIAN ART

Presents

A half-day conference on

THE MEDIEVAL ARTS OF NORTH AFRICA AND THE NEAR EAST

Friday February 2nd 2007

2.00-5.30 pm, Room 106, McCormick Hall

Princeton University

Speakers will include:

Mat Immerzeel,

Paul van Moorsel Centre for Christian Art and Culture in the Middle East,

Leiden University

Monasteries in the Qalamun (Syria). Art and pilgrimage in the Middle Ages.

2.00-3.00

Marilyn Heldman,

Independent Scholar

Framework: Following Clues of International Exchange.

3.15-4.15

Robin Jensen,

Vanderbilt University

The Iconography of Christian Tomb Mosaics from Roman Africa"

4.30-5.30

To be followed by a reception.

Spaces are limited and registration is required. To register please contact

Robin Dunham (rdunham@princeton.edu) before January 26th 2007.

Full programm:

<http://ica.princeton.edu/conferences.html>

--

Reference:

CONF: Medieval Arts of North Africa + Near East (Princeton). In: ArtHist.net, Dec 2, 2006 (accessed May 13, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/28794>>.