LECTURESHIP

THE WARBURG INSTITUTE

School of Advanced Study

The Warburg Institute invites applications for a Lectureship from those with research and teaching interests in any aspect of the cultural and/or intellectual history of Europe between the later Middle Ages and the early eighteenth century. Their research should extend the range of scholarly expertise currently available among the permanent staff and should be compatible with the Institute's resources. Preference is likely to be given to those who can demonstrate a link between their existing research interests and the postgraduate teaching of the Institute.

Appointment, from October 2007, will be to Level 7/8 (Lecturer), which will be £32,145 to £42,469 p.a. including London Allowance.

Further details on the Institute, the Lectureship and the method of application should be obtained from the Institute's website <http://warburg.sas.ac.uk/> or from the Secretary and Registrar, The Warburg Institute, Woburn Square, London WC1H 0AB. Telephone: 020 7862 8949. E-mail: Anita.Pollard@sas.ac.uk.

Closing date for receipt of applications: 31 January 2007.
