Awarding Pictures: The Art of Children's Book Illustration

Naples Art Association Exhibition-Related Symposia

Naples, Florida

September 28, 2007

Deadline for Abstracts: March 1, 2007

The Naples Art Association (NAA) is pleased to announce the exhibition-related symposium, Awarding Pictures: The Art of Children's Book Illustration, to be held in Naples, Florida, on September 28, 2007. The symposium highlights an exhibition of the same title, focusing on award-winning artists working in the field of children's literature and showcasing historic and contemporary artwork in various media ranging from painting to video. The NAA invites paper proposals of all topics related to the impact of awards on children's book illustrations throughout art history. Some examples include:

Books as artistic production

Connections between image and text in award-winning books

Award committees/decisions: who decides and how

Artist-writer teams and how they work: do they have an edge

Publishers/editors/artists/writers

Graphic novels, awards, and audiences (especially teens)

Banned books

Viewers/Readers

What makes an award winner

All participants are requested to submit a 250-word abstract with title.
