

Filson Historical Society Fellowships & Internships

Glenn Crothers

The Filson Historical Society

Filson Fellowships & Internships

Deadline: February 15, 2007

The Filson Historical Society, Louisville, Kentucky, invites applications for fellowships and internships. Applications must be received by February 15, 2007. Detailed information about fellowships, internships, and application procedures can be found on The Filson's Web site: <http://www.filsonhistorical.org/fellowships.html>. Information about The Filson's research collections can be found on the online catalog.

The Filson anticipates that fellows will publicize the results of their research in Ohio Valley History, a peer-reviewed journal published jointly by The Filson, the Cincinnati Museum Center, and the University of Cincinnati.

Questions regarding the fellowships and internships program should be directed to Dr. A. Glenn Crothers, Director of Research for The Filson Institute: crothers@filsonhistorical.org or glenn.crothers@louisville.edu.

Organized May 15, 1884, the mission of The Filson Historical Society is to collect, preserve and tell the significant stories of Kentucky and the Ohio Valley history and culture. The Filson is headquartered in the Ferguson Mansion in Old Louisville and houses a library, a museum, and a special collections department.

Dr. A. Glenn Crothers
Director of Research, The Filson Historical Society
Associate Editor, Ohio Valley History
1310 South Third Street
Louisville, KY 40208
502-635-5083, ext. 235
crothers@filsonhistorical.org

Assistant Professor of History
University of Louisville
Louisville, KY 40292

ArtHist.net

502-852-6817

glenn.crothers@louisville.edu

Reference:

STIP: Filson Historical Society Fellowships & Internships. In: ArtHist.net, Jan 5, 2007 (accessed Dec 18, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/28895>>.