Call for ICMA Sponsored Session Proposals

International Medieval Congress at Kalamazoo, 8-11 May 2008

The International Center of Medieval Art (ICMA) seeks proposals for sessions to be held under the organization's sponsorship at next year's International Medieval Congress in Kalamazoo. The ICMA welcomes session proposals in all fields of medieval art history, broadly construed. Both junior and senior scholars are invited to apply. Information on the conference can be found at: <http://www.wmich.edu/medieval/congress/>.

ICMA DEADLINE FOR SESSION SPONSORSHIP PROPOSALS: 1 May 2007.

Proposals should include:

1. Proposed call for papers (not more than 3/4 of a page, single-spaced)
2. A brief letter describing the organizer's interest in the topic and membership status in the ICMA
3. CV with home and office mailing addresses, e-mail address, and phone number

Session organizers and speakers must be members of the ICMA at the time of the conference. Information about the organization can be found at its website: <http://www.medievalart.org/>.

The ICMA Programs Committee will select one or two proposals for ICMA sponsorship, and will notify applicants of the decision by 8 May (1 week before the conference deadline for session proposals).

Please direct all session proposals and inquiries to the Chair of the ICMA Programs Committee:
