

Postdoc – Aesthetics after Photography (Univ Essex)

Jobs.ac.uk

University of Essex

Senior Research Officer

Department of Art History and Theory

This post-doctoral research fellowship forms part a three-year interdisciplinary research project funded by the Art and Humanities Research Council called Aesthetics after Photography. The post holder will be expected to develop and publish research in the area of photography theory and practice since the 1960s and must have a PhD in Art History or a related discipline.

Appointment to this full-time, fixed-term post, for three years commencing 1 October 2007 or as soon as possible thereafter, will be made at £24,402 per annum.

Further information can be found by visiting our website:

<http://www.essex.ac.uk/personnel/Jobs/details/RE290W.htm>

Closing date: 16 April 2007

Reference:

JOB: Postdoc - Aesthetics after Photography (Univ Essex). In: ArtHist.net, Mar 12, 2007 (accessed May 5, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/29066>>.