FELLOWSHIPS/GRANTS/INTERNS

University of Southern California - USC Mellon Post-Doc in Visual History (CA, United States)

USC Mellon Post-Doc in Visual History

The USC Visual Studies Research Lab and the USC Shoah Foundation Institute for Visual History are pleased to announce a two-year post-doctoral fellowship for a recent PhD whose research and writing is related to Visual History. Candidates should possess an expertise in photography and/or film. Preference will be given to applicants who express an interest in using the Shoah Foundation Archive in their teaching or research. The position includes teaching one course a semester, one in History and the other in Art History. Applicants may hold PhDs in History, Art History or Film Studies or any other relevant fields. The PhD should have been awarded within the last five years. Applicants should send a letter of application, CV, two letters of recommendation, and a syllabus for any specialized course relating to some aspect of Visual History.

Send materials to Vanessa Schwartz, Dept. of History, USC: 3520 Trousdale Parkway, Los Angeles, CA 90089. Review will begin April 1. For more information and a longer description of the postdoc, go to www.usc.edu/visualstudies. The University of Southern California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply.
