

visiting position (Trinity Univ. San Antonio TX)

The Department of Art and Art History at Trinity University has a one year visiting position for an art historian specializing in Medieval and/or Northern Europe, 1300-1700. The teaching load is three courses each semester, with 20 being the average class size. The course rotation will include the first or second half of a two-semester introductory western survey as well as upper-level courses on Medieval and/or Northern European Art, 1300-1700. There is also the possibility of teaching a seminar on a specialized topic, a course on critical theory and methodology, or a course on museum studies. The chosen applicant is expected to have completed all work for the PhD or be ABD prior to the start of the appointment.

The application should include a cover letter discussing both teaching philosophy and research interests, a curriculum vitae, graduate transcripts and three names of referees with contact information. Please send application by postal mail to Dr. Laura Camille Agoston, Department of Art and Art History, Trinity University, One Trinity Place, San Antonio, TX 78212-7200 (Email: laura.agoston@trinity.edu). The position will remain open until filled. EEO
