

Journal of Surrealism and the Americas

Claudia Mesch

Announcing a New Journal and CFP

The Journal of Surrealism and the Americas focuses on the subject of modern European and American intellectuals' obsession with the "New World." The editors would like to announce a call for papers for a general topics issue on any aspect of visual culture or literature that engages with surrealism in the Americas, or, that deals with the reception and legacy of the Surrealist movement in the Americas.

Foreign language contributions (in French, German and Spanish) are accepted, but we require a two-page, double-spaced English language abstract with any foreign language submission. Deadline for submissions for the first issue has been extended to June 1, 2007. The JSA is a refereed ejournal, published biannually, and is supported by a grant from the Terra Foundation for American Art.
