Title: The Rise of Photography in New Zealand (1839-1918)

Date: 2007-05-01

Description: Photography has only recently been accepted in New Zealand as an art form and has arguably been largely neglected in historical academic study. While there is a growing body of popular literature and scholarship on photography in New Zealand, much of it is dedicated to recent art photography or is ...

Title: Collecting and Collectivity: Art, Acquisition, and Avant-garde Community, CAA Dallas, February 2008

Location: Texas

Date: 2007-05-11

Description: Collecting and collectivity: though sharing a common root, no two words seem so different. If the act of collecting is a source of individuation from which emanates selfhood, then collectivity opens a field for self-abnegation and group performance. Inquiries into the relationship between collecting ...
