

Bibliotheca Amploniana (Erfurt, 07-08)

Dr.

The Catholic-Theological Faculty Erfurt announces two research grants for the winter semester 2007/2008 in the Bibliotheca Amploniana, part of the University and Research Library Erfurt-Gotha, at ERFURT / GERMANY.

The grants will enable young post doctorate scholars from Germany and abroad to do research for a period of three months in the Amploniana in Erfurt. The research grant is 1.600 Euro per month.

Two scholars can start September 1, 2007 (or by agreement). Closing dates for applications: July 15, 2007.

(Preview: Closing date for summer semester 2008 (2 scholars from April 1 oder later) will be February 15, 2008)

The 'Bibliotheca Amploniana' is the largest completely preserved collection of manuscripts written by a late medieval scholar. The Amploniana contains today more than 2500 manuscripts, incunabula and postincunabula from theology, law, medicine and philosophy.

For further informations on the 'Amploniana' see:

<http://www.uni-erfurt.de/amploniana/>

Further informations about the Grant

<http://www.uni-erfurt.de/theol/dokumente/amploniana%20stipendium%20e.pdf>
(english)

<http://www.uni-erfurt.de/theol/dokumente/amploniana%20stipendium%20d.pdf>
(german)

--

Dr. Brigitte Pfeil

Kath.-Theolog. Fakultät der Universität Erfurt

Forschungsprojekt 'Amploniana'

c/o Sondersammlung der UFB Erfurt/Gotha

Nordhäuser-Str. 63

D-99089 Erfurt

mail: brigitte.pfeil@uni-erfurt.de

Amploniana-Homepage: <http://www.uni-erfurt.de/amploniana>

Reference:

ArtHist.net

STIP: Bibliotheca Amploniana (Erfurt, 07-08). In: ArtHist.net, May 15, 2007 (accessed Jan 30, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/29280>>.