CALL FOR PAPERS

The European Committee for Sports History

The 12-th Annual Conference

20-22 September 2007

Lorient (Bretagne, France)

Sport and the Arts: Construction and reality

The twelfth International

Congress of The European Committee for Sports

History (CESH) will be hosted by the faculty of humanities, at University of Southern Brittany, FRANCE,

September 20-22, 2007.

Both established and emerging scholars are invited to engage in an interdisciplinary reflection on the use of artistic representations and/or performances as source material as well as on the type of "reality" such artistic "constructions" mediate, in a critical, diachronic, possibly dialectical and cross-community perspective.

There is again the annual competition for the best paper by a junior scholar (aged 35 and under). See www.cesh.eu

Submissions are welcome from all relevant disciplines in any European language.

Anyone wishing to submit a twenty minute paper for consideration is invited to send a 200-word abstract to congress2007@cesh.eu by May, 31th 2007.

Further information about the topic, deadlines, price, location, accommodation, etc may be obtained from <http://www.univ-ubs.fr/CESH2007>, which is being updated daily (should there be any information you may not be able to access, please do forward your questions to myself at the above-mentioned address, and allow a few days for the reply).
