

Malevich Society Grant Competition 2007

Julia Tulovsky

Dear Colleagues,

The Malevich Society is pleased to announce its grant competition for the year 2007.

The Malevich Society is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to advancing knowledge about the Russian artist Kazimir Malevich and his work.

In the belief that Malevich was a pioneer of modern art, and should be recognized for his key contributions to the history of Modernism, the Society awards grants to encourage research and writing relating to his history and memory. The Malevich Society also sponsors publications devoted to Malevich, as well as translations of his texts, and texts about him, into other languages.

The Society welcomes applications from scholars of any nationality, and at all stages of their career. Proposed projects should increase the understanding of Malevich and his work, or augment historical, biographical, or artistic information about Malevich and/or his artistic legacy.

Application forms and instructions may be requested by telephone at 1-718-980-1805, by e-mail at malevichsociety@hotmail.com, or may be downloaded from the web-site: www.malevichsociety.org.

Deadline: September 30, 2007
