

Fulbright Scholar Awards in Art History (Deadline: 1 Aug 07)

Boris, Anne C.

Fulbright Scholar Program for US Faculty and Professionals

August 1, 2007 is the application deadline for traditional Fulbright Scholar grants worldwide. The Fulbright Scholar Program is offering 16 lecturing, research or combined lecturing/research awards in art history during the 2008-2009 academic year. Faculty in art history may apply not only for awards specifically in their field, but also for one of the many "All Discipline" awards open to any field.

Every year 800 U.S. Fulbright Scholars in 140 countries and all regions of the world enjoy an experience of a lifetime, one that provides a broad cultural perspective on their academic disciplines and connects them with colleagues at institutions around the globe. Awards range from two months to an academic year. Grants are awarded to faculty of all academic ranks, including adjunct and emeritus. In most countries lecturing is in English, though awards in Latin America, Francophone Africa, and the Middle East may require proficiency in another language.

U.S. citizenship is required. For other eligibility requirements, detailed award descriptions, and an online application, visit our website at www.cies.org.
