

Medieval Art History (ICMA/CAA, Los Angeles, 25-28 Feb 09)

Stephen Perkinson

Call for Sponsored Session Proposals

Annual Conference of the College Art Association
Los Angeles, California

25-28 February, 2009

The International Center of Medieval Art (ICMA) seeks proposals for sessions to be held under the organization's sponsorship at the 2009 Annual Conference of the College Art Association (CAA), to be held in Los Angeles. The ICMA welcomes session proposals in all fields of medieval art history, broadly construed. Both junior and senior scholars are invited to apply. The deadline for proposals is 1 August 2007. Session organizers and speakers must be members of both the ICMA and the CAA at the time of the conference. Information about the ICMA can be found at:

<http://www.medievalart.org/>;

information about the CAA can be found at

<http://www.collegeart.org>

Please direct all session proposals and inquiries to the Chair of the ICMA Programs Committee:

Dr. Stephen Perkinson

Department of Art

Bowdoin College

Brunswick, ME 04011

USA

email: sperkins@bowdoin.edu

Reference:

CFP: Medieval Art History (ICMA/CAA, Los Angeles, 25-28 Feb 09). In: ArtHist.net, Jun 7, 2007 (accessed Dec 27, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/29404>>.