Picasso in Dialogue (Edinburgh, 20-21 Sep 07)

James Coutts

Picasso in Dialogue Conference

20-21 September 2007

National Gallery Complex

The conference explores Picasso's relationships with poets, philosophers, artists and even history itself. Organised by the National Galleries of Scotland, Visual Arts Research Institute Edinburgh and the University of Edinburgh to coincide with Picasso: Fired with Passion at the National Museum of Scotland and Picasso on Paper at the Dean Gallery. The international line-up of speakers includes Dr Jean-Louis Andral (Musee Picasso, Antibes), Elizabeth Cowling (University of Edinburgh) and Dr Susan Grace Galassi (The Frick Collection, New York).

National Gallery Complex, Edinburgh
Hawthornden Lecture Theatre
£30 / £20 Conc and Members/Friends. Includes admission to both exhibitions.
Book now on 0131 624 6560 (lines open 0930-1630, Monday-Friday), or buy in person from the Weston Link Information Desk, National Gallery Complex.

www.nationalgalleries.org
www.nms.ac.uk/picasso

Picasso: Fired with Passion. Discover his art, his loves, his life, beyond the canvas. National Museum of Scotland until 28 October.
www.nms.ac.uk/picasso

Reference:
CONF: Picasso in Dialogue (Edinburgh, 20-21 Sep 07). In: ArtHist.net, Aug 6, 2007 (accessed Nov 23, 2026), <https://arthist.net/archive/29523>.