Popular Art, Architecture and Design Call for Papers

Derham Groves and I invite interested persons to submit a proposal to the 2008 National Pop/Am Culture Association Annual Conference at the San Francisco Marriott, San Francisco, CA, March 19-22, 2008.

Popular Art, Architecture and Design is concerned with the aesthetics of popular material culture in the everyday world of the past, present and future. Scholars from such disciplines as Architecture, Art History, Fine Art, Industrial Design, and Interior Design are invited to submit proposals. At previous conferences topics have included Good Sports, Model Women, Shopping Malls, Bodies of Work, Mass Media, Place & Identity, Household Myths & Mysteries and many, many more. It is truly a broad arena! Popular Art, Architecture and Design papers may be published in an e-zine after the conference. Please e-mail a cover letter with contact information and 150-word abstract of your proposed paper to Dr. Loretta Lorange at <llorange@earthlink.net> and Dr. Derham Groves at <derham@unimelb.edu.au>
