Subject Line: GSA 2007: Invitation: New Faculty Get-Together and Graduate Student Get-Together

Junior Faculty and Graduate Students:

Please note the following additions to the GSA activities this year.

Dear Junior Faculty in German Studies-related Fields,

With the encouragement of the GSA leadership, a group of junior faculty will be gathering for an informal meeting at the GSA annual conference in San Diego.

Friday, October 5, 2007 from 10PM to 11PM (immediately following the banquet) at the Trellises Poolside (outside), Town and Country Resort. In case of rain, we will meet at Charlie's Bar and Grill.

This get-together has been organized in the context of the GSA's ongoing efforts to better meet the needs of junior faculty who are members or potential members. We hope that you will come to this gathering with ideas and enthusiasm.

If you have a scheduling conflict, but would like to contribute suggestions, please contact me <jhosek@queensu.ca> or one of the other junior faculty members who will be helping to facilitate the meeting.

Looking forward to meeting you,

Jennifer Hosek (German Studies - Queen's University, Ontario)

Will Gray (History - Purdue - <wggray@purdue.edu>)

Katja Guenther (Sociology - Cal State, Fullerton -

Dear graduate students studying Germany,

With the encouragement of the GSA leadership, we would like to invite you to participate in the founding meeting of the Graduate Students Caucus at the GSA 31st Annual Conference in San Diego, October 4-7, 2007.

The meeting will take place on Friday, October 5, from 10 PM to 11 PM (immediately following the GSA Annual Banquet) at the Lion Fountain. In case of rain, we will meet at the Terrace Cafe.

The purpose of our get-together will be to give opportunity to students from various fields (such as Germanic Studies, History, Anthropology, Social studies, Architecture, Art history, and others) to discuss ideas how the GSA can meet our needs and how can we contribute more effectively to the Association.

We hope that you will come and make your voice heard, bring your ideas and enthusiasm!

If you would like to contribute suggestions earlier, please send them to any of us, i.e. the participants in the Graduate Student Committee:
