

European Architectural History Network Newsletter (EAHN)

Nancy Stieber

The European Architectural History Network (EAHN) announces the publication of the first issue of its quarterly newsletter.

For a high resolution version, please go to http://130.161.126.123/EAHN/EAHN_Newsletter_No0107hires.pdf (11 MB);

for a low resolution version, please go to http://130.161.126.123/EAHN/EAHN_Newsletter_No0107lores.pdf (1 MB).

In the future, for those who have signed up for the EAHN listserv, the newsletter will arrive in your mailbox as an e-mail with direct links to all the items, which will be posted on the EAHN website. To join the EAHN listserv and receive the EAHN Newsletter as well as occasional announcements, please send your request to eahn@inha.fr

Each newsletter contains news about the activities of the EAHN including upcoming conferences and tours; the profile of a research institution; the description of an architectural site by a local scholar including local resources for research; book and exhibition reviews; and announcements of conferences, symposia, calls for papers, lectures, lecture series, exhibitions, study tours, grants, and fellowships. Thirty-two correspondents from twenty-one countries contribute to these listings. The listings are in the original language and in English.

Nancy Stieber
Chair, Publications Committee
EAHN

--

Reference:

ANN: European Architectural History Network Newsletter (EAHN). In: ArtHist.net, Dec 6, 2007 (accessed May 14, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/29942>>.