

East Asian Art History (Heidelberg, 17–20 Jul 08)

Call for Papers

The Second International Heidelberg Colloquy on

East Asian Art History

July 17 - 20, 2008

Supported by the international Balzan Foundation we are going to hold the second colloquy on East Asian art history at the University of Heidelberg. Graduate students engaged in research for a PhD on East Asian art history are invited to present papers about their current work for the colloquy. This colloquy provides a forum for young researchers to share ideas, exchange valuable experiences with other graduate students and work towards international standards on field in East Asian art history.

APPLICATIONS

All proposals on East Asian art history are welcome.

Please send your application via e-mail to the organiser oakg@sino.uni-heidelberg.de

with following information:

- One-page abstract (250-300 words) in English, including title of your paper and your name
- A short CV including your full name, citizenship, contact info, telephone, e-mail and mailing address, institution, name of PhD supervisor, a list of publications if applicable
- Any audiovisual equipment you will need for your presentation

Deadline for the application is March 31st, 2008.

Incomplete or belated applications will not be taken into consideration.

A committee of senior academics will go through all applications and make a selection. We will accept 15 - 16 participants from institutions around the world for the Heidelberg colloquy.

CONFERENCE PLACE

The colloquy will take place from Thursday evening, July 17th to Sunday afternoon, July 20th, 2008 at the Institute of East Asian Art History in Heidelberg, Germany.

TRAVEL EXPENSES

All presenters will be granted travel expenses up to 300,- Euro (Europe), 1300,- Euro (America), 1200,- Euro (China), 1400,- Euro (Taiwan), 1400,- Euro (Korea) and 2000,-Euro (Japan).

HOUSING AND MEAL

We will provide all participants with housing and meals from July 17th - 21st, 2008. Please note that single rooms may be limited and some will have to share double rooms with other participants.

For further questions please contact

Ms. Shupin Lang
Administration Office of Heidelberg Colloquies
on East Asian Art History
Seminarstr. 4
69117 Heidelberg Germany
E-mail: oakg@sino.uni-heidelberg.de
Tel. +49 (0) 6221 - 542352
Fax. +49 (0) 6221 - 543384

Reference:

CFP: East Asian Art History (Heidelberg, 17-20 Jul 08). In: ArtHist.net, Jan 25, 2008 (accessed Jul 15, 2025), <<https://arthist.net/archive/29998>>.